Spring Lecture Series: Antoni Gaudí: The Architecture of Barcelona Remote Live

NEW! The visionary works of Antoni Gaudí have left an unmistakable imprint upon the architecture of Barcelona. His exuberant and imaginative designs, created during the Spanish Art Nouveau movement known as Modernisme, came to define the architectural character of the city through their organic forms, richly textured materials, vibrant colors, religious symbolism, and extraordinary structural innovations. This richly illustrated lecture will explore Gaudí's remarkable contributions to architecture, interior design, and the decorative arts, from his fantastical residences and imaginative public spaces to his monumental masterpiece, the Sagrada Família basilica. We will examine his inventive use of natural forms, innovative engineering, and symbolic ornamentation while placing his work within the broader artistic, cultural, and social transformations that shaped Barcelona at the turn of the 20th century.

How to Write the Funny

Comedy writing is not a mysterious talent reserved for those who are "naturally funny." It's a learnable skill that can be studied, practiced, honed, perfected. This hands-on workshop is designed for all experience levels. The class features lectures and in-class writing exercises. We will analyze humorous prose, punch-up sitcom scripts, and watch movie comedies and diagram their structure. Most importantly, you'll make an exciting discovery: Whimsical or heartfelt, silly or profound, in memoir, spoken word, sitcom, rom-com, blog, Snapchat, or business presentation... all that is on your mind and in your heart can be written funny.
